

HAD FEARFUL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. S. E. Carter, Formerly of Seymour, Was Nearly Burned To Death.

ALONE IN HOME AT THE TIME

Condition Is Serious, Severe Nervous Shock.—She Lives In Ravenna, Ohio.

Mrs. S. E. Carter, who formerly lived in Seymour just west of where the library stands, came near losing her life at her home in Ravenna, Ohio. A paper of that city gives the following account of her experience:

Mrs. S. E. Carter of East Main street mother of Mrs. Al Lawrence, had an agonizing experience alone in her home Tuesday forenoon when her clothing caught fire from an open gas stove and she was badly burned on the entire right side of her body.

She was on the floor cutting out a pattern at the time and her outer garment caught fire. Quickly the blaze enveloped her, but she tore off her clothing as rapidly as possible, not soon enough, however, to escape having the skin burned from her feet to her head on her right side, her back and breast and her arm included. Mrs. Carter was frantic from pain and the impending danger and screamed aloud, but as there was no one in the house at the time, her daughter and Mrs. R. A. Miller on the opposite side of the house being absent, it was nearly a half hour before she was able to give the alarm. Leonard Holmquist, employed by H. W. Riddle, then heard her and went to her aid. She had turned water on her burns and was suffering all the more. She had scarcely any clothing on her and presented a pitiable sight. Holmquist at once summoned Dr. W. H. Oviatt, who gave her temporary relief and ordered her to the White hospital where she was soon taken by Fairchild's ambulance.

She was reported Wednesday as resting well, the chief danger being from nervous shock, as fortunately none of the burns were deep.

Thursday morning it was stated at the hospital that Mrs. Carter's condition was rather serious.

Nazarene Church.

The Bible says, "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, and we praise Him," that as a church we are marching on and gaining new territory.

We are not seeking members but the salvation of the people. We are preaching the rugged truths of the Bible such as repentance and restitution for the sinner, in order that he may be converted, and utter abandonment and consecration of our all for the believer in order that he may receive the promised blessing, which is the Baptism with the Holy Ghost. No tobacco user or lodge member or person who has not been clearly and genuinely converted, can join the church of the Nazarene. While there is no absolutely perfect church on this earth we do stand out against all kinds of worldliness and believe in the old time religion our fathers and mothers shouted over.

Bro. Davis, a druggist, and his wife and Miss Ethel Davis from North Vernon, joined the church Thursday evening. These are most excellent people and will aid both spiritually and materially to the church.

BRAKES FAILED CAUSING WRECK

A B. & O. S-W. Train Crashed Into Monon Train Late Friday Evening.

CARS AND ENGINE DERAILED

Considerable Damage But No One Was Injured.—Smashup at Mitchell Crossing.

The failure of the brakes to work on east bound freight No. 88 on the B. & O. S-W. resulted in a wreck at Mitchell about 7 o'clock Friday evening. Considerable damage was done to railroad property but no one was injured.

As No. 88 was approaching the Mitchell station from the west a Monon freight was crossing the B. & O. tracks and when the brakes on 88 refused to work the engine crashed into the Monon train. Four cars in the latter and three cars and the engine of the B. & O. train were derailed. The derailed engine ran up onto the platform and stopped when it came in contact with the walls of the telegraph office. Some little damage was done to the building. C. C. Trueblood was engineer and J. R. Elliott conductor on the B. & O. train.

The wreck crew from the Washington shops and from Seymour were both sent for and spent the night clearing up the wreck and rerailling the cars.

Officials of the B. & O. Southwestern railroad and the police of Pittsburg and other cities along the line west of the Smoky City are looking for a trunk, the property of Dr. Jane Blanchard of Pittsburg, which is said to contain an original land patent issued by the United States government for property now alleged to be valued at more than $100,000,000 located in East St. Louis, Ill. together with other documents establishing the claim to the property of Dr. Blanchard and other heirs of her great-grandfather John Hillman. The trunk, it is alleged, was deposited at the baggage room of the B. & O. Southwestern at Pittsburg Tuesday afternoon by James Blanchard, husband of Dr. Blanchard, and when they called for it Wednesday morning the trunk had mysteriously disappeared and no trace of it could be discovered.

Numbers of the papers in neighboring counties have been complaining that the marrying business seems to be very poor this year judging from the few licenses issued recently. It must be confessed that the boys in Jackson county have been a little slow since the first of the year about stepping up to the clerk's desk and investing in a "pair of licenses."

Clyde Steinbrenner of Indianapolis will organize a dancing class in the Society Hall Thursday, Feb. 1, 1912. Anyone wanting to join the class please be present at eight o'clock. Also children's class 4:30 to 6 p.m. No one except the class and patrons allowed in the hall during dancing school. f1d

RECEIVES FORTUNE

For Hogs Which Were Fed on Food From Seymour.

The Indianapolis Star says: "Henry C. Jones, a well-known farmer and stock raiser of Waldron, Ind., who is a guest at the Denison Hotel, probably holds the record among Indiana farmers for marketing hogs in Indianapolis in 1911. In the twelve months he shipped thirty-five car loads from his farms and received approximately $40,000. Jones came in yesterday with his sixth car load since Jan. 1. He is one of the biggest stock raisers in the state. His specialty is hogs. A hog on the Jones farm receives as much care and attention as a high-priced horse or cow. A stock barn to care for several hundred porkers is being erected by Mr. Jones on one of his farms near Waldron."

The Hodapp Hominy Co. of this city furnished the feed which fattened Jones' hogs. The Seymour company ships large quantities of this feed over the country and the results obtained by the Waldron farmer furnishes the reason for the big demand for it.

Is Still Epidemic.

Cholera is still epidemic among the hogs of Bartholomew county, yet it is said the disease is abating somewhat. A large number of hogs of the county have died of the disease this winter and some farmers have been heavy losers by it.

Over in Johnson county the hog cholera means more than the mere loss of the hogs, for a number of law suits are in preparation as a result of a recent sale of thoroughbred hogs, which was held near Edinburg. It is said that the hogs died of cholera shortly after the sale and the purchasers are demanding the return of their money. Some local lawyers have been consulted by purchasers and it is likely that a number of suits will be filed in the Bartholomew Circuit Court.—Columbus Republican.

SEYMOUR MEN WILL BENEFIT

By Order Increasing Wages of Shop Men and Others on B. & O. S-W.

MORE PAY FOR ABOUT FORTY

Car Inspectors First of The Local Men To Enjoy Advance In Wages.

The announcement that a large number of shop and other employees of the B. & O. S-W. are to receive an increase of pay is received with rejoicing along the line and quite a number of Seymour men are among those to benefit by advancement in wages.

Altogether about forty Seymour employees of the road including round house and yard men will receive more pay within the next two or three months. According to the official announcement part of the men who are to come in under the new scale will enjoy its benefits this month, an additional number next month and the remainder the month following.

Six car inspectors will probably be all the local men who will be in the first group. Each of them will receive an advance of about $3.50 a month. Some of the machinists and others will probably receive a larger increase than the inspectors.

The Cincinnati Enquirer this morning said regarding the official announcement of the advances:

General Superintendent C. W. Gal2 loway, of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, yesterday made official announcement that shop employees of the road will receive increase in pay, amounting to about 5 per cent. Efficiency standards will determine those who will receive the advance in pay. The company acted voluntarily in the matter, as the men have not asked for an increase in pay. The advance in wages dates back to January 1, so that when the men draw their January pay they will receive the increase. The monthly pay day is about the middle of the month, the pay rolls being sent to Baltimore about the fourth day of the month and pay checks are received about 16 days later.

The announcement of the increase does not mean that all shop employees will receive an advance in wages, as Superintendent of Motive Power P. Prendergast will determine those whose efficiency warrants the management to advance their wages. Some of the mechanics now receive the limit in wages, and they will not be included in the list of those who are entitled to more pay. Between 900 and 1,000 men will benefit by the order, which includes the Ohio, Indiana and Illinois divisions.

It is expected by road officials that it will take about three months to put the order into effect and to give all deserving workers increased wages. Machinists, boiler makers, car repairers and workers of that kind will benefit.

John Niewedde is administrator of the estate and a motion for a new trial was made but it has not been acted upon by the court.

The case of the Brownstown State Bank vs. A. J. Behymer et al to foreclose mortgage was set for trial the first day of next term. The case of the state vs. Ed Martin for larceny was set for the third day.

Registration Law.

At the last session of the Indiana General Assembly, that body passed an act providing for the registration of voters which act provides that every male who expects to vote at the general election next fall, shall register in the precinct in which he is entitled to cast a vote.

The registration will take place at or about the places provided for the general election, there being one registration poll or place in each precinct in the state.

The registration board shall be made up of an inspector, and two clerks, the inspector to be appointed by the County Auditors and the clerks to be appointed by the inspector of the precinct in which they shall serve. There are three days named in which all shall register, those who do not register not being allowed to vote under any circumstances.

The first registration day is set for the 180th day before the November election which is held on the first Tuesday after the First Monday in November, thus registration day will come in May. The second day is set for the 60th day before the election thus coming in September, and the third registration day is set for the 29th day before the election which brings it in October.

The Crothersville Herald says of the recent defeat of the Crothersville basket ball team here:

In the best played game of the season, Crothersville high school basket ball team was defeated by the Seymour high school last Friday evening at Seymour by the score of 15 to 8.

The local team reports that there was nothing the matter with the players, but that the Seymour team just defeated them. They did not think the referee in fault or the umpire. The local team is planning to get revenge when they come to Crothersville, so do come out and help the boys to win.

Good Reading for Next Year

GOOD reading is as necessary to the growth of the mind as good food to the growth of the body. The man who supplies his family with good books and good magazines has done for them the greatest service next to supplying them with food and shelter. We are very glad indeed to announce that has made arrangements to receive at this office subscriptions for "the greatest magazine in the world"—The Century, and for "the best loved magazine"—St. Nicholas, for boys and girls.

The Seymour Republican

The Century in 1912

will contain—beginning in the January number—a new novel, "Stella Maris," by W. J. Locke, author of "The Beloved Vagabond," etc.

Professor E. A. Ross is writing for the Century during 1912, four articles of great significance and interest on The Middle West and what it stands for. Many policies, he says, now Western, are bound to become in the end American policies.

"Everybody's St. Francis," by Maurice Francis Egan, American Minister to Denmark, will be a noteworthy life of the saint, who for five centuries has stirred the admiration of Catholics and Protestants alike.

The Century has also in hand articles and pictures of rare interest and value on Charles Dickens and on Napoleon. "The American Undergraduate," by Clayton Sedgewick Cooper—his general characteristics, "education à la carte," choosing a college, society life in American colleges, the place of the American undergraduate in the world today—will be full of timely suggestion.

The Century will continue to hold high its standard of art and illustrative features. Timothy Cole's "Masterpieces of American Galleries," Joseph Pennell's series of The Panama Canal, and Boutet de Monvel's illustrations for St. Francis of Assisi, will be of special interest.

St. Nicholas in 1912

will continue to stand at the forefront in juvenile literature—known every where as the world's premier magazine for boys and girls. An important serial or series of articles will begin with every number from November to April. St. Nicholas is made for and addressed to the great army of active, bright-minded, young Americans, and dominated by the American spirit. "Crofton Chums" by Ralph Henry Barbour, author of "The Crimson Sweater," "The Lady of the Lane" by Frederick Orin Bartlett, author of "The Forest Castaways," and "The Knights of the Golden Spur" by Rupert Sargent Holland, will be among the prominent features.

A Holiday Suggestion

CAN you think of a better gift to one who likes to read than twelve months' such reading as is found in the Century Magazine? And, if you are a father or a mother, ask yourself if you can think of anything that will bring greater joy to your little flock than St. Nicholas twelve times.

SPECIAL OFFER We are able, by special arrangement with the Century Co., to make the following offers:

THE CENTURY one year, November and December included free, 14 numbers for . . . $4.00

ST. NICHOLAS for one year, November and December included free, 14 numbers for . . . $3.00

THE CENTURY & ST. NICHOLAS (new subscription) together, sold to one person, for one year, 28 numbers, 3,300 pages of good reading for old and young . . . $6.00

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

HANLY'S OPPORTUNITY

Ever hear about Bill Hanly? Bill Hanly has a farm of 200,000 acres in the interior of Oregon.

It is made up of mountains and valleys, rivers and meadows and marsh lands and dry spots and rolling lands.

Last year Bill Hanly cut 215,000 tons of hay off his big place, and he has cattle on a thousand hills.

He and his cowboys drive his herds of fat cattle to the railroad, and it requires fifteen days to make the trip.

When Bill Hanly rode into the cattle country years ago his property consisted of one horse, one lariat, one Mexican saddle, one cowboy hat and the clothes on his back. Now he doesn't know how much he is worth.

But his friends say he is the same Bill Hanly today as then.

Do you envy him? And begrudge him his great prosperity?

Not if you know how he got his lands and cattle. He got them by deprivation and short dinners, by the isolation of weary years and by patient waiting. He began with a herd of five cows and worked and bided the time of increase.

Besides—He got his possessions by clean living and temperate habits. While the other cowboys made their semiannual trip to the railroad, "shot up the town" for diversion and spent their money in riotous living, Bill stayed by his cattle and saved his money.

Listen! He used to lie on his back and count the stars and say to himself he would some day have as many cattle as the stars in heaven.

Bill's blue eyes saw Opportunity and he promptly grasped it by the forelock. And you?

Do you say there is no chance? Perhaps not Bill Hanly's chance, although there are yet thousands of acres of grass lands in the northwest states, away from railroads, that may be cheaply purchased. But—

Are you willing to do as Bill Hanly did?

Are you willing to keep clean and hold tight? Are you willing to labor and to wait?

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all dealers.

Squab and Quail.

Many prefer squab to quail because the meat is not so dry, and is always sure to be tender. The chief advantage, however, is in the fact that when you eat squab it isn't necessary to pause several times while picking out a bunch of bird shot from your sore teeth.—Wellington (Kan.) News.

Do you know that fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, and require no internal treatment whatever? Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by all dealers.

Crowded Manhattan.

In one small portion of Manhattan, N. Y., is a population greater than that of Arizona, or of Delaware, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont or Wyoming.

Mrs. Oakley Allen and daughter of Brownstown came last evening to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

The KITCHEN CABINET

HERE are no birds in last year's nest; No vain regrets disturb my breast; For aught that in the future lies; And last year's birds and last year's flies Have passed the reach of tears and sighs.

DON'TS FOR THE BABY.

Don't dance him on your knees until his little brain is addled.

Don't pin him into tight bands and clothes and then wonder why he cries.

Don't forget that three hundred thousand babies die each year before they are a year old, in our own United States.

Don't forget what the baby needs and not what you would like to do for him.

Don't lack courage to forbid promiscuous kissing of your baby.

Don't forget to feed him regularly.

Don't forget that he needs much sleep and much letting alone, lots of fresh air and sunshine, as does any young plant.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

An excellent way of cleaning lamp chimneys is to hold them over the spout of the tea kettle full of boiling water until they become well steamed, then polish with a clean, dry cloth.

The stems may be quickly removed from currants by sprinkling them with a little flour and then rubbing them between the hands. This takes much less time than picking them over, and is quite as effective.

Try using an old paint brush to put on stove blacking.

Think every day of beautiful things, for if you don't you will soon get so that there are no beautiful things to think of.

No matter how house work presses, now how much sewing there is to do, it will pay to take a little time each day, if possible at least two or three times each week, to get out doors and enjoy the beauty of nature, to draw in deep breaths of pure, sweet air, so that the body and spirit may be refreshed. Work will go better, so that it pays. Even if things were not done a woman owes it to herself to pay some regard to her finer nature. Her family will appreciate her the more she values herself. There are home duties and duties which belong to herself, and she who honors both is the all around useful, happy woman.

Think Shark Can Smell Death. There is an old superstition among sailors, which is still believed in, that when a shark persistently follows a vessel it is a sign that some person on board is going to die. The alleged reason is that the great fish can scent death.

Constipation is the cause of many ailments and disorders that make life miserable. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, keep your bowels regular and you will avoid these diseases. For sale by all dealers.

The Rank Majority.

It is stated on reliable authority that there are more than a million and a half different brands of cigars. Yet there are only two kinds of cigars made, good and bad—mostly the latter.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effectual for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

David Glasgow Farragut, then a captain in the United States navy, received his orders as flag officer of the west gulf squadron of the Federal navy. They placed him in command of an expedition which was destined to open up the Mississippi river to Federal warships. The newly appointed secretary of war, E. M. Stanton, assumed his duties. Thomas followed up his victory, at Mill Springs, but when his troops marched up to the enemy's intrenchments they found them abandoned.

Company Sent Letter.

At the council meeting Thursday night during the discussion of the question as to letting the contract for the Jeffersonville avenue improvement, attention was called to the fact that a representative of the company had promised the latter would have a letter here for the council by Thursday evening. The letter had not been received or was not presented and this had something to do with the postponement of action in the matter.

It has since developed that the letter was received and was given by Agent Jones to Councilman Davison
but the latter had forgotten having it.
Today Agent Jones called the council-man's attention to the fact and after a search Mr. Davison found the letter. It stated that the company would at the proper time pay in cash their assessment on the improvement as provided by law.

Charles W. Morse Received President's Pardon at Hands of Wife.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 20.—Bearing the official papers giving freedom to Charles W. Morse, the New York financier, who has been serving a 15-year sentence in the federal prison for violation of the national banking laws, his wife arrived last evening at the post hospital at Fort McPherson, where Morse has been an inmate on account of his health, since last November.
Miss Jennie Morse, the sister of the banker, was the only person in the room with the prisoner, and she was the only one to see the greeting of husband and wife. Silently Mrs. Morse handed the official papers to Morse.
Clutching them in his weak grasp he murmured a word or two of thanksgiving.

No definite plans for the future have yet been made for Morse. It is expected that he will be moved into a sanitarium in Atlanta within a few days, and from that place will be moved again as soon as advisable to a sanitarium in Florida. From that place provided Morse is well enough to get there, he will be taken to Bad Neuheim, Germany.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

GOD'S FORWARD SIGNAL.

Text. "When thou shalt hear a sound of marching in the top of the mulberry trees thou shalt go out to battle."—Chron. xiv. 15.

David was at war. The Philistines were hedging him pretty close. He had his troops marshaled and arrayed for battle. Then there's a hush. Remember the night before the battle back in the sixties, comrade? Many a good soldier went into his tent and laid his sword at the feet of the god of battles. After the council of war turned many a division, corps and commander humbly awaited answer from the Lord of hosts. So David waited and was told to take his army near a grove of mulberry trees, at daybreak when he heard the rapping and marching, not of the Philistines, but of the movement of angelic armies of heaven, then the signal for the decisive blow had arrived. I do not know just what David heard—clatter of horses' hoofs, clatter of chariot wheel, clash of armor. I only know that when he heard his all he went to headquarters, and from there came the signal from God to go forward to victory. Catch the significance, O church of God?

Not the arm of flesh and blood, but of omnipotent God. Makes one think of Elsha's servant going out in the morning and seeing the mighty host of the Syrians. Hear him cry, "Alas, master, what shall we do?" Ever ask that question, Christian, when some sneering critic asks, "Who is God?" "Where is he?" Then comes the opening of your eyes, and the mountain is seen alive with the allied armies of God.

"The Tumult and the Shouting Dies." Ten miles of warships in the harbor! Twenty-five thousand fighting men, soldiers and bluejackets, in line! Bands playing, banners flying, triumphal arches and reviewing stands! We're fond of trooping flags and massing bands, flashing gold lace and rattling gun carriages. They're visible symbols of national preparedness, and our eyes glow with glory and our bodies quiver with pride. Oh, yes, and our God is there too.

But back of the warrior and orator, back of high power guns and walls of steel, stands what? They who reckon odds in number and size take account of battleships and armies, but men of larger world vision look back of a courier wounded, a rain falling, a bridge swept away and see the hand of him who moves men as pawns on earth's chessboard. And those of us who would win battles for eternity shall not see our God standing in the shadow and recognize that a grain of faith may sometimes outweigh an army? When God calls his church to a forward movement let the brave advance.

We'll sound the loud timbrel o'er Egypt's dark sea.
Jehovah hath triumphed; his people are free.

Fluttering Signals.

Has there been an ebb in the tide of the church? Are newspapers and magazines asking "What's the matter with Christianity?" Is there a decrease in the numbers of those added to the church? Are Sunday school statistics alarming? Do stalwart young men refuse to enter the ministry, saying, "It is no longer a man's job?" Are the Philistines boastful and sneering? Then a revival in its real meaning, "a renewal of life," is needed. Men are anxious for a revival in business. When does a church need a spiritual quickening? When prayer meetings are a jest and Sunday evening attendance is slim, with church bazaars crowded and animated. When shorter sermons and more music, sung perhaps by ungodly choirs, is called for. When Bible is forgotten, private prayer unusual, the Lord's Supper forsaken. When worldly men control the church and the minister fears the wealthy sinner in the pew. When social prestige mark the church's ambition; when form and ritual and church millinery mean more than the sharp, definite proclamation of the gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ. When the church of the living God falls asleep with dying sinners in its arms. Then comes God's call for a forward movement.

The Sound of Marching.

Stand back ye timid! God has not forsaken his world. Come, Elijah, to Mount Carmel. God is going to answer by fire. Prophecy to the winds, Ezekiel, over the valley of dry bones. Take your stand by the Jordan, John the Baptist. Assemble yourselves, ye faithful, for a Pentecost. Let the Augustines, Luthers, Knoxes, Wesleys, Foxes, Finneys and Moodys take their place by the grove of mulberry trees. God's signal is flashing. Are you contemptible few in numbers? God does not deal in majorities, big figures are often ciphers. Fling scorn upon weapons of flesh, accept God's challenge. Remember Gideon, with his little regiment charging the host of Midianites, Jonathan with a single companion attacking an army of Philistines. Magnificent figures these. Man made superman, victory in their voice, triumph in their face. Say, lonely, dispirited, heartbroken pastor, do you hear the signal in the tops of the mulberry trees? Then go forward in the name of your God. The time of his advance is at hand. God goes before his people. The individual and nation that march along the highway of righteousness shall see the pillar of fire at night and the cloud of protection by day.

Mrs. Anna Flomerfelt is at home from an extended visit in Otisco and Louisville.

POULTRY

Chief Requisites of Building Are Dryness, Perfect Ventilation and Plenty of Sunlight.

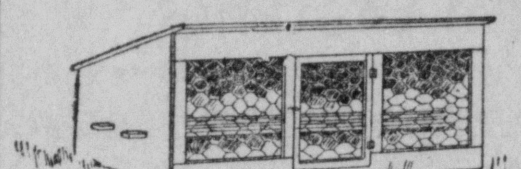

(By N. R. GILBERT.)

Frequently poultry keepers complain bitterly of the failure of their fowls to show profit, when the whole fault lies in defective housing. Poultry lead an entirely artificial life when they live penned in a run, or even when at liberty and provided with a sleeping-house—that is to say they have their food provided them and do not sleep in the trees, as their natural instinct would teach them. It is simply the difference between sleeping in a house and sleeping in trees that upsets them. When they do the latter, they may not lay well but they keep their health. More than half the diseases modern fowls suffer are caused primarily by this defective housing.

The chief requisites of a house are that it should be weather-proof, so that whatever the inclemency of the season, the fowls keep dry. It must be provided with ample ventilation and should have a sunny aspect.

The sun is life to all animals, and the more fowls get of it, the better. Yet, sometimes, fowl-houses are placed in dark, secluded corners, and built to admit hardly any light. A

A colony-house that supplies plenty of fresh air to the chicks. Six feet long, two feet six inches wide, two feet four inches high in front, eighteen inches high in the back.

poultry-house should always, if possible, be placed on ground sloping slightly away from it, then in the wet weather the rain drains away. If the ground is quite level the rain off the roof shows a tendency to remain in the form of puddles.

A trench should be dug to carry it away, or better still, there should be a spout on the roof to carry the wet away down to a down spout connected with a surface drain.

It is important that the ground around the house, as well as the house itself, be kept dry, as fowls never do well on wet land.

Special attention should be paid to the roof. The eaves should overlap some three inches, and it is all the better if built of stouter wood than the walls.

There is no necessity to cover the roof with felt, provided it receives a good dressing of tar at first and a further coat each year. On no account make the roof of corrugated zinc.

Such a house will be cold in the winter and hot in the summer. If the poultry-keeper has some sheets of this very useful article—for such it certainly is—make a roof of thin boards and put the zinc on top.

Ventilation is a subject better understood now than formerly. We indulge in more of it for ourselves and more for the fowls. Yet for them as for ourselves, we must not forget that the thing can be overdone and that a good deal depends upon the location of the house and the outside temperature.

For the floor, the earth needs to be beaten down quite hard and a dressing of some inches of sand or light dry earth put on top. If the soil is clayey, it is better to have a wooden floor, for it must be dry.

The Rayo Lamp

The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book. It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light.

The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price. It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers. Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes.

Dr. N. G. Smith Dead.

Dr. Nelson Gilman Smith died at 9 o'clock this morning at his home on West Tipton street. He had been an invalid since February 22, 1909 when he suffered a stroke of paralysis. Last November while in the bathroom he fell and, lying on the floor for some time, contracted a cold which affected his throat and finally resulted in his death.

Dr. Smith was born in Carroll county, Indiana in 1848. During the civil war he served four years in the lectic Medical College in Indianapolis as professor and dean.

The withdrawal of Edwin M. Lee from the race for re-election as Republican state chairman is not exactly unexpected. Since his sensational declaration at Washington in opposition to the renomination of President Taft it had become generally apparent that he could not be re-elected chairman. Following Chairman Lee's Washington statement the majority of the Republican papers of the state declared that his views did not represent the views of a large majority of the Republicans of the state and practically put him out of the running for chairman. Many of the party leaders of the state expressed the same opinions in public statement. There were some extremely bitter and abusive criticisms of Lee but the majority of these came from persons who welcomed the opportunity to assail him to satisfy political and factional grudges. There was a general opinion however, even among many of Lee's friends, that the public attitude he had assumed was a big mistake politically, whatever might be his private convictions, and that it rendered him practically ineligible to re-election.

It aroused or intensified animosities which would make it hard for him to bring the party together for a harmonious campaign and would make it hard for him to lead a hopeful and enthusiastic fight, especially with Taft at the head of the ticket. In fact he would have been an impossibility as chairman in case of Taft's renomination and the latter is practically assured in spite of the campaign against it conducted by various forces.

Mr. Lee's retirement helps to clear up the situation and promises to bring about reorganization of the party machinery with less friction and in a more harmonious manner than would have been the case with him still in the race.

Personally Chairman Lee is popular, has been a loyal hard working Republican and will retire with the good will of thousands of members of the party, many of whom would have favored his reelection under different circumstances. He showed ability as a manager and leader under the adverse conditions in 1910 and there is still a feeling with many Republicans that he should have been rewarded with the government appointment to which he aspired after the election.

There is every encouragement to believe that John M. Lewis will be the next Republican district chairman. Personally and by mail many of the leaders and rank and file of the district are assuring him of their interest in his candidacy and promising him support. His election will be gratifying and an encouragement to the party in Jackson county.

Cummins a Candidate.

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh, and as a general tonic. Many thousands of pounds of this root are used each year in the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for catarrh. Ask Your Druggist for a Free Peruna Almanac for 1912.
